It is a story in a bottle!

Old Pulteney 12-Year-Old Single Malt – 40% abv

A maritime distillery on the Northern Coast of Scotland, in the town of Wick.

Sweet-scented aromas of chamomile honey, floral, citrus zest, and fresh mint lead to a sleek, honeyed palate. The malt develops further with flavours of toasted grain, seaweed, smoke and white pepper. Its finish persists with notes of the seaside.

Tullibardine 225 Sauternes Finish Highland
Single Malt Scotch Whisky 43 % abv

Tullibardine's history of brewing and distilling dates back to 1488, when King James IV of Scotland stopped by the site, a brewery at the time, to purchase beer. This was recorded as the first public purchase of beer in Scotland.

Pale gold with amber hues; lovely aromas of citrus peel, light toast, honey, dried flowers and spice; the palate shows more spice with brine, candied orange peel, marmalade and vanilla.

Glenallachie 10 Year Old Cask Strength Batch 8 58.6 % abv

Notes of sulfur, candied fruits, with a bready malty quality mixed with a wave of ethanol. It's not a sherry bomb, but does have a nice sweetness and a good mouthfeel. Short to medium finish. Wood tannins, and baking spices.

GlenAllachie distillery is a Speyside, single malt whisky distillery at Aberlour founded in 1967, which sits at the foot of Ben Rinnes.

Previously, the distillery mainly produced whisky for blends however has since been relaunched as a distillery known for its fruity, single malt expressions

Kilchoman Machir Bay Islay
Single Malt Scotch Whisky – 46% abv

Kilchoman distillery (pronounced Kil-ho-man) is a distillery that produces single malt Scotch whisky on Islay, an island of the Inner Hebrides.

Pours a vivid pale gold; the aromas immediately hit your nose with notes of smoke and brine, reminiscent of a seaside bonfire. Digging deeper, one finds integrated aromas of crisp apple, lemon peel, dried heather and honey. On the palate, it is smooth and pleasantly warm, with a lovely marriage of sweet and smoky flavours
